

W.R.P.G October 2013 Newsletter

Hello all and welcome to Octobers newsletter

Firstly we were very sad to receive news of the sudden death of one of our stalwart members of the group, Barry Barrell gone but not forgotten.

September saw us at our first meeting with groups who may be involved on the big day next year, including the police, our local MP Mr Ian Liddell-Grainger, two district councillors, the gardening club, conservation group, Watchet's Music Festival organisers, vicars, plus many more. We were given some fantastic advice from a number of the groups that attended, plus names and numbers of those to contact who would also specialise and coordinate in large events like ours.

October 4th Watchet Cricket Club held their annual award ceremony at the Royal British Legion. We went along to support them as they plan a charity match next year, in aid of the WRPG. We will publicise it and hopefully it will be a lovely sunny day for you all to come along and have a cream tea or a sticky bun.

We are having another clothing collection, if you do have bags then please have them ready on your doorstep ready for collection on October 23rd. If you want a bag then do let one of the group know.

We have coming up on November 1st another quiz night, which is being hosted again by kind permission in the Royal British Legion at 7PM for 7.30PM to also include a ploughman's supper.

Quiz teams like last time are in groups of four and it is £6 per head inclusive. Please contact Ann Snelling for tickets but hurry, hurry, hurry they are selling fast 01984 631189.

Do remember to have a look or pose your question either on our website below or we are also a Group on facebook.
